Disclaimer

Although the information and recommendations set forth herein (hereinafter “Information”) are presented in good faith and believed to be correct as of the date hereof, The Solar Sleuth makes no representations as to the completeness or accuracy thereof. Information is supplied upon the condition that the persons receiving same will make their own determination as to its suitability for their purposes prior to use. In no event will The Solar Sleuth be responsible for damages of any nature whatsoever resulting from the use of or reliance upon Information.

Any suggestion or information contained in this document, online or in other related literature is based solely on limited data available to The Solar Sleuth and our experience with the general properties of any specified product. Accordingly, no express or implied representation or warranty is made either as to the accuracy of any such suggestion or information or as to the results which may be obtained from, or the consequences of the use or application of, any product or of any such suggestion or information. In no event is any such suggestion or information to be considered or represented to be a recommendation or a final or preliminary engineering or other design. Except for such express written warranty, if any, as the manufacturer or supplier of system components may issue to the purchaser, The Solar Sleuth makes no warranty, express or implied, with respect to any product, including, but not by way of limitation, the merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose of such product.

The purchaser assumes sole and full responsibility for being familiar with all characteristics of all products and for determining and satisfying him or herself as to the content of all products and the suitability of all products for the uses and applications contemplated by the purchaser and others, as well as for complying with all laws, regulations and standards applicable to the possession, handling, processing, and use of all products. The purchaser also assumes all risks and liabilities arising out of or in connection with the use of all products, and of the results obtained by the use of all products, whether used alone or in combination with other products, tradesmen or material, including, without limitation, all risks and liabilities with respect to patent and proprietary rights of third parties.

Force majeure (extraordinary events past the control of parties) applies.
